COURT SUSTAINS DEMURRER AND MAN DISCHARGED

Bernard Ridolfino, Trenton, Agrees To Pay Costs of Case

MAN HIS CAR HIT DIED

Ronald Morgan, Who Was Walking Along Highway, Was Victim

DOYLESTOWN, May 28—Bernard Ridolfino, 28, 243 Elmwood street, Trenton, whose car struck Ronald Morgan, 16, of Morrisville, who died November 18, from injuries received, was discharged after Judge Fred W. Davis sustained a demurser in criminal court, here.

The defendant, who was charged with involuntary manslaughter, agreed to pay the costs of prosecution.

Ronald Morgan, who was walking along the Bristol-Morrisville highway Nov. 16, 1948, was struck by a car driven by the defendant. He died in St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, N. J., two days later.

The dead youth was accompanied by Andrew Nyre, 20, and Joseph Doyle, both of Morrisville, all of whom were walking along the highway about 11 o'clock at night on a clear, moonlit night.

Nyre, the first witness for the Commonwealth, said two cars were passing one another and traveling in the same direction when Morgan was struck. "One car grazed me and spun me around. Both cars were going towards Morrisville," said Nyre.

Doyle, the second witness for the Commonwealth, said he heard a "screech of rubber, a crash of glass and that he was thrown down the bank and had three ribs broken."

John Walachy, 19, of Trenton, N. J., who was driving one of the cars, testified he was coming from Bristol and that he glanced in his mirror and saw a car with one headlight following him.

"As the car passed me I saw a red and black jacket for a second and heard a thud," said Walachy.

State Policeman Duane C. Allen, Langhorne sub-station, who investigated the accident, said there were two blood stains on the highway, one a foot in from the edge of the concrete and the other three feet in on the two-lane highway.

State Police William Thomas, who aided Trooper Allen, testified that only the defendant's car remained at the scene of the accident.

Judge Davis, following a motion made by J. Leslie Kilcoyne for a demurser, ruled that the Commonwealth's evidence did not contain all the elements of a crime necessary for the prosecution and conviction of the defendant.

To Break Ground For New Safe Foods Store at Croydon

CROYDON, May 28—Ground will be broken here Wednesday morning at nine o'clock for a new Safe Foods store. The ground will be broken by a boy scout and a girl scout as part of the ceremony.

The site of the new market will be on the north side of the P. R. R. just west of the Cedar ave. and between the P. R. R. and Route 13, about 100 feet west of the present Croydon Diner and fruit market.

The building will be of cinder block and steel and will be 60 by 105 feet with a warehouse 30 by 30 feet in the rear. There will be plenty of parking space as an ample plot has been reserved for this purpose.

This store will be the first of three new stores to be built in this area, according to David Sklar, manager of the Safe Foods Stores. A new building is planned for the Bristol store and a new store is to be built and opened at Pennell.

WINDING OF MAYPOLE

DOYLESTOWN, May 28—A Bristol township man, Alvin R. Geisler, 60, formerly employed as a fireman by the Leedom mills in Bristol, was sentenced by Judge Fred W. Davis to serve not less than nine nor more than 18 months in the County Prison after a jury convicted him of obtaining property under false pretenses.

Geisler, who has been in prison seven weeks, was acquitted of another bill of indictment, containing two counts, forgery and uttering a forged instrument.

An Oxford Valley second hand dealer, Russell Broadnax, testified Geisler sold him a television set which bore a faked GE label and was supposed to be in perfect condition, for $200 on April 14.

The charge of which the jury has found you guilty belongs in the class of serious crimes, such as arson, robbery and burglary," Judge Davis said. "The punishment the Legislature has fixed for the maximum is either a $5,000 fine or five years in prison or both. The case was heard yesterday, by Fred Stockback, of Tudor street, Philadelphia. MEMORIAL DAY, 1949

Words are inadequate to express what is in the hearts of Americans on Memorial Day. The nation finds it necessary to turn to symbols to express its homage to those who offered their lives that this nation might live to advance the cause of freedom and human dignity. So men in uniform march, rifles crash out their volleys, and the notes of "Taps" bless the flower-strewn graves of the hero dead.

It is a ritual hallowed by time and custom and richer with meaning today than ever in the past. As tribute is paid to the men of wars fought long ago, and of the recent conflict, the hope for enduring peace is not bright.

It is a long list, that of the battlefields of the Revolution, of the War of 1812, of the Mexican War, of the Indian wars, of the Civil War, of the Spanish-American War and of World War I, and World War II.

Words are not enough to express what is in the hearts of the American people on Memorial Day. Nor are symbols enough. Only with work and sacrifice to safeguard what the nation's heroes so valiantly protected can we hope to prove our pride and gratitude — hope to deserve in some small part the offerings freely made in our behalf.

EMERGENCY OF PEACE

The strength of any nation is in its people. That strength increases or diminishes in direct proportion to the attitude of the people toward their government. If government is kept strong and virile, respected and honored, the nation is safe. If government becomes something to be exploited, a distributor of bounty, which provides instead of governs, its strength turns to weakness and its whole purpose is defeated.

During the history of the United States there have been times when it became necessary to defend the government. In times of war the entire resources of the nation in both materials and manpower have been marshaled in behalf of victory. No sacrifice was too great for that end.

America's sons have died in many lands in defense of the flag. They asked little. The United States emerged from the last conflict the strongest nation in the world because the American people were strong in time of emergency.

Since the coming of peace there has been a growing tendency to exploit the government instead of defending it. The American people have become beggars at the doors of the national treasury. Debts are being piled upon debts. The nation's resources are being dissipated for the benefit of selfish minorities.

Americans are following after strange political gods who would turn the nation away from the security of liberty and freedom. The emergency of war may be ended. The emergency of peace is real.

Most people hope for the best and occasionally some of them even work for it.

Hostess Surprised To Find Social Is Also In Her Honor

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Randolph Yeagle, Bath road, was hostess to members of her card club and guests at which time a shower was tendered Mrs. Mearle Schell, Bath road. Mrs. Yeagle was surprised to find the affair was also in her honor. Adding gaiety to the occasion was discovery of nearness of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Harry Eckert and Mrs. Yeagle.

For Mrs. Schell the gifts were attached by pink and blue ribbons to the neck of a large stork in the center of the living room. Mrs. Yeagle received a purse of money.

The women played pinochle, and prizes were given to: Mrs. William Bourne, Mrs. George Graffelman and Mrs. B. Carlen. A door prize was given to Mrs. Charles Fischer.

A covered dish lunch followed. The dining room was decorated in pink, blue and yellow. Favors were storks in back of napkins representing "three-cornered pants," filled with peanuts and a gum drop. In each a stick was inserted to hold a miniature clothes-line leading from one place to the other and holding place cards.

Others attending were: Mrs. Edward Paur, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Charles Quigley, Mrs. B. Wood, Miss Marian Walter, Bristol, and Mrs. Ralph Hart, Tullytown.

Dear Father, we thank Thee for another Sabbath Day. As we prepare for the Lord's Day on the morrow help us to realize that every day is holy and every day is the Lord's Day. May we worship Thee on the morrow. May we honor Thee in thought, word and deed. Help us to remember all who have served God and Country. May we memorialize them by rededicating ourselves to that for which they gave all. May we not neglect our blessed Lord Who has said, and is saying still, "This do in remembrance of me." Bless us all for His sake. Amen.

Mr. and Mrs. William James, Bath street, and Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, Swain street, are spending Memorial week-end at Scott Run.

FIRE CO. NO. 1 HANDS FRANKLIN A. C. A DEFEAT; 5-4

The Fire Company No. 1 team handed Franklin A. C. its first defeat of the Bristol Suburban Softball League last evening on Leedom's field. It was the first extra inning contest of the league and the final score ended, 5-4.

An error by Fred Field gave the frenemy the triumph. The inning started with Allen Hibbs singling to right field. Frank Fucco sacrificed him to second, Jerry Gerome to Field. Field saw Hibbs too far off second and attempted to catch him off the base but his throw was wild and went into left field. Before it could be retrieved, Hibbs crossed with the winning run.

COURT SUSTAINS DEMURRER AND MAN DISCHARGED

Bernard Ridolino, Trenton, Agrees To Pay Costs of Case

MAN HIS CAR HIT DIED

Ronald Morgan, Who Was Walking Along Highway, Was Victim

DOYLESTOWN, May 28—Bernard Ridolino, 28, 243 Elmer street, Trenton, whose car struck Ronald Morgan, 16, of Morrisville, who died November 18, from injuries received, was discharged after Judge Fred W. Davis sustained a demurrrer in criminal court here.

The defendant, who was charged with involuntary manslaughter, agreed to pay the costs of prosecution.

Ronald Morgan, who was walking along the Bristol-Morrisville highway Nov. 16, 1948, was struck by a car driven by the defendant. He died in St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, N. J., two days later.

The dead youth was accompanied by Andrew Nyere, 29, and Joseph Doyle, both of Morrisville, all of whom were walking along the highway about 11 o'clock at night on a clear, moonlit night.

Nyere, the first witness for the Commonwealth, said two cars were passing one another and traveling in the same direction when Morgan was struck. "One car grazed me and spun me around. Both cars were going towards Morrisville," said Nyere.

Doyle, the second witness for the Commonwealth, said he heard a "screech of rubber, a crash of glass and that he was thrown down the bank and had three ribs broken."

John Walachy, 19, of Trenton, N. J., who was driving one of the cars, testified he was coming from Bristol and that he glanced in his mirror and saw a car with one headlight following him.

"As the car passed me I saw a red and black jacket for a second and heard a thud," said Walachy.

State Policeman Duane C. Allen, Langhorne sub-station, who investigated the accident, said there were two blood stains on the highway, one a foot in from the edge of the concrete and the other three feet in on the two-lane highway.

State Police William Thomas, who aided Trooper Allen, testified that only the defendant's car remained at the scene of the accident.

Judge Davis, following a motion made by J. Leslie Kilcoyne for a demurrrer, ruled that the Commonwealth's evidence did not contain all the elements of a crime necessary for the prosecution and conviction of the defendant.

To Break Ground For New Safe Foods Store at Croydon

CROYDON, May 28—Ground will be broken here Wednesday morning at nine o'clock for a new Safe Foods store. The ground will be broken by a boy scout and a girl scout as part of the ceremony.

The site of the new market will be on the north side of the P. R. R. just west of the Cedar ave., and between the P. R. R. and Route 13, about 100 feet west of the present Croydon Diner and fruit market.

The building will be of cinder block and steel and will be 60 by 105 feet with a warehouse 30 by 20 feet in the rear. There will be plenty of parking space as an ample plot has been reserved for this purpose.

This store will be the first of three new stores to be built in this area, according to David Sklar, manager of the Safe Foods Stores. A new building is planned for the Bristol store and a new store is to be built and opened at Penndel.

BRISTOL TOWNSHIP MAN IS GIVEN A JAIL TERM

Alvin R. Geisler Sentenced To Serve 9 to 18 Months

2 OTHER COURT CASES

DOYLESTOWN, May 28—A Bristol township man, Alvin R. Geisler, 60, formerly employed as a brewer by the Leedom mills in Bristol, was sentenced by Judge Fred W. Davis to serve not less than nine nor more than 18 months in the County Prison after a jury convicted him of obtaining property under false pretenses.

Geisler, who has been in prison seven weeks, was acquitted of another bill of indictment, containing two counts, forgery and uttering a forged instrument.

An Oxford Valley second hand dealer, Russell Broadnax, testified Geisler sold him a television set which bore a faked GE label and was supposed to be in perfect condition, for $200 on April 14.

The charge of which the jury has found you guilty belongs in the class of serious crimes, such as arson, robbery and burglary," Judge Davis said. "The punishment the Legislature has fixed for the maximum is either a $5,000 fine or five years in prison or both. This type of conduct is looked on as being reprehensible by our lawmakers," the Court said.

Geisler, who is also in trouble in connection with a non-support order charge filed by his wife, denied that he knew that it was not a GE set. "Broadnax never asked me to demonstrate the set and when he saw me several days later he called me a crook and said, 'Give me back my money or I will take it out of your hide.' I traded a used $575 garden tractor in for the television set," Geisler said.

MEMORIAL DAY, 1949

Words are inadequate to express what is in the hearts of Americans on Memorial Day. The nation finds it necessary to turn to symbols to express its homage to those who offered their lives that this nation might live to advance the cause of freedom and human dignity. So men in uniform march, rifles crash out their volleys, and the notes of "Taps" bless the flower-strewn graves of the hero dead.

It is a ritual hallowed by time and custom and richer with meaning today than ever in the past. As tribute is paid to the men of wars fought long ago, and of the recent conflict, the hope for enduring peace is not bright.

It is a long list, that of the battlefields of the Revolution, of the War of 1812, of the Mexican War, of the Indian wars, of the Civil War, of the Spanish-American War and of World War I, and World War II.

Words are not enough to express what is in the hearts of the American people on Memorial Day. Nor are symbols enough. Only with work and sacrifice to safeguard what the nation's heroes so valiantly protected can we hope to prove our pride and gratitude — hope to deserve in some small part the offerings freely made in our behalf.

EMERGENCY OF PEACE

The strength of any nation is in its people. That strength increases or diminishes in direct proportion to the attitude of the people toward their government.

If government is kept strong and virile, respected and honored, the nation is safe. If government becomes something to be exploited, a distributor of bounties, which provides instead of governs, its strength turns to weakness and its whole purpose is defeated.

During the history of the United States there have been times when it became necessary to defend the government. In times of war the entire resources of the nation in both materials and manpower have been marshaled in behalf of victory. No sacrifice was too great to that end.

America's sons have died in many lands in defense of the flag. They asked little. The United States emerged from the last conflict the strongest nation in the world because the American people were strong in time of emergency.

Since the coming of peace there has been a growing tendency to exploit the government instead of defending it. The American people have become beggars at the doors of the national treasury. Debts are being piled upon debts. The nation's resources are being dissipated for the benefit of selfish minorities.

Americans are following after strange political gods who would turn the nation away from the security of liberty and freedom. The emergency of war may be ended. The emergency of peace is real.

Most people hope for the best and occasionally some of them even work for it.

At the morning service two memorial flags, a church flag and an American flag, will be dedicated for use in the vestibule of the church. The service will be patriotic in nature, and the offertory anthem by the choir will be "Praise to God."

On Tuesday evening at 6:30 St. James softball team will play the Presbyterians Church team at the Township high school field. There will be no admission charge. On Thursday evening, the team will play the Methodist team at Kilian Country Club field, Bensalem township.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Arthur D. Sargin
Pastor
Eddington Presbyterian Church

Dear Father, we thank Thee for another Sabbath Day. As we prepare for the Lord's Day on the morrow help us to realize that every day is holy and every day is the Lord's Day. May we worship Thee on the morrow. May we honor Thee in thought, word and deed. Help us to remember all who have served God and Country. May we memorialize them by rededicating ourselves to that for which they gave their all. May we not neglect our blessed Lord Who has said, and is saying still, "This do in remembrance of me." Bless us all for His sake. Amen.

nell and Mrs. Minnie Hughes. Refreshments were served.

FIRE CO. NO. 1 HANDS FRANKLIN A. C. A DEFEAT; 5-4

The Fire Company No. 1 team handed Franklin A. C. its first defeat of the Bristol Suburban Softball League last evening on Lee-don's field. It was the first extra inning contest of the league and the final score ended, 5-4.

An error by Fred Field gave the firemen the triumph. The inning started with Allen Hibbs singling to right field. Frank Fucco sacrificed him to second, Jerry Jerome to Field. Field saw Hibbs too far off second and attempted to catch him off the base but his throw was wild and went into left field. Before it could be retrieved, Hibbs crossed with the winning run.
